The National Association of Nurse Massage Therapists: Guidelines for Newsletter Article Submission

Overview: NANMT seeks articles for its Newsletter, which are oriented to the Nurse Massage Therapist's integration of the Nursing Process and Touch Therapies into the care of clients and/or patients. In addition, new tools, techniques, useful timely information, challenges seen within the Specialty, challenging clients and how the Nurse Massage Therapist impacted the health of the client and/or patient, formal and informal Research, Ethics or the Business aspects of Practice and inspiration to our fellow colleagues are also accepted for review.

Guidelines:

1. All articles should be submitted to NANMT within an e-mail message, to info@nanmt.org with subject "NANMT Newsletter Article Proposal", as a MS Word attachment in Times New Roman, # 12 font, unformatted and single spaced. Use only one font and font size, no centering, headers, bold or Italics are to be ussed. Authors submitting proposed articles are to assure that computers have been scanned for viruses and maintain updated virus protection.

2. All proposed submitted articles are to be checked for style, punctuation and grammar prior to submission

3. It is recommended that each article follow the format listed below
   Article Title
   Your name and credentials
   Text of the article
   A resource listing for more information – if applicable
   A Reference List – if applicable
   Biography (3 –4 sentences) including your e-mail if you wish readers to contact you
   If article is being submitted as a Continuing Education Course, please submit your CV/Resume
   Your e-mail address and phone number if NANMT has a question
   Attach a picture of yourself in a tif or JPEG format with at least 300 dpi
